Death from a Slight Cold.

By neglecting those salutary precautions which common sense dictates, many, very many, fall victims to their imprudence. We have seen the young bride, blooming as it were, as the bird of Paradise and the fair flower of hope, the pride of her father and the joy of her mother-her cheek flashed with anticipation, and her eye beaming with the soft expression of love-the gay dreams of life dancing on her fancy with, the rich and variegated tints of the rainbow's promise. We have seen all this changed-ave, the wedding garment for a shroud and the bridal chamber for this sepulchre of the dead; and the highest satisfaction wherever used. He desires all desirous of suitall this from neglecting a common COLD. Now, before it is too late, mit of its most extraordinary cures. The gay, the young and the beautifut, and the young speak forth its praise, and will so long as it makes positive cures, and cheers the despairing family fireside. Those afflicted with diseased lungs should call on Owsley & Co., and see the certificates of such men as Dr. Wm J. Richards, Judge William Burke, and Dr. Hiram Cox, late Professor in Cincinnati Eclectic Medical College.
